

WEBINAR

Estate & Business Succession Planning During Uncertain Times

Tuesday, August 17, 2021, at 1:00 p.m. (CST)

Recent tax proposals could bring many changes, especially for business owners. The potential loss of a “step-up in basis” could significantly change the way assets are transferred to heirs, along with a possible increase in capital gains rates. These changes could have significant consequences to the next generation of business owners. Many strategies are available to help mitigate the impact these potential changes may have on your family and business.
